Principles of HPI

defenses

We all make errors-it's a matter of when, not if

These errors follow a recurring pattern and are predictable and manageable

Curiosity drives us to examine our practices and learn from our errors

As employees, we are the solution not the problem

Safety is not the absence of accidents-it's the presence of defenses

A rustic wooden background with a central wooden frame containing a blackboard. The blackboard has the text "2018 Line Crew" and "video" written in blue, underlined. In the bottom left corner, there are several tulips in shades of yellow and white. In the top right corner, there is a green leaf and a portion of a vintage typewriter.
