Chelan PUD Online Payment Service

By providing Chelan PUD with the account information for your Designated Account, you authorize us to follow the payment instructions we receive from you through the Service. When you use this Service to send us a payment instruction, you authorize Chelan PUD to initiate a message to your bank or credit card provider to charge your Designated Account and to send those funds to us for payment on your Chelan PUD account (s) so that we receive the funds as close as reasonably possible from the date indicated by you in the payment instructions. The terms of these payment instructions will be in the form of Authorization Agreement for Storage of Credit Card Information, Authorization Agreement for Direct Payments (ACH/Debit), or Authorization Agreement for Storage of Bank Information, as may be selected by you, the terms of which are incorporated herein by this reference.

If your payment is received after the due date of the bill, regardless of any cause except failure to reasonably process your explicit payment instruction actually received by us, then you will remain responsible for any late charges and interest assessed, the same as if you mailed your payment to us and we received it after the due date. This would be true even if you are unable to access the system due to problems with the Internet or our servers being temporarily unavailable. Therefore, we recommend that you instruct the Service to initiate each payment to us at least four (4) business days before the actual due date, except for automatic payments which will be processed on the due date of the bill. Business days are Monday through Friday, except for federal bank holidays. If you use the Services to send us your payment instructions after 5:00 pm Pacific Time on a business day, then the Service will treat your instruction as if it was received on the following business day. It is the day we receive payment from you, and not the day we receive your instructions, that determines whether your payment was timely.
