

Rocky Reach Hydroelectric Project
Protection, Mitigation, Enhancement Measures
Recreation, Socioeconomics, Land Use, Aesthetics

August 29, 2002

Proposal Development by Social Sciences Working Group (Draft - as discussed on June 26, 2002)

Proposed PME	Proposed Action/Measures	Requested By	Justification
Recreation Resources Management Plan (measures 1-7)	1. Continued operation and maintenance of park system, including improvements, replacement and renovation.	SSWG, IAC	To ensure continued availability of recreation sites. SCORP public surveys.
	2. Entiat, community waterfront plan and implementation.	Entiat Focus Group	Community impacted when Project built. Involves Project lands.
	3. Entiat, continue as partner to complete the Entiat River Outdoor Learning Center.	USFS, Entiat Focus Group	Involves Project lands.
	4. Entiat, Columbia Breaks Fire Interpretive Center, potential partnership for completion of project.	Entiat Focus Group, CBFIC Foundation	Community impacted when Project built.
	5. Managed Access, non-consumptive nature trails (WDFW-owned mitigation lands).	IAC	SCORP survey shows future trend that people want to interact with nature. State priorities as identified in SCORP.
	6. Trails that connect people to communities.	IAC	SCORP survey shows statewide demand for safe places to walk and bike
	7. Monitoring and evaluation cycle and update studies.	IAC, BLM	So informed decisions can be made by advisory committee in future

Note: All proposals listed are conceptual. Proposal details and discussion will continue in the Social Sciences Working Group and Full Relicensing Team meetings. Final approval of a proposed measure involving Chelan PUD is ultimately at the discretion of the Chelan PUD Board of Commissioners.