

Rocky Reach Hydroelectric Project
Protection, Mitigation, Enhancement Measures
Recreation, Socioeconomics, Land Use, Aesthetics

*Proposal Development by Social Sciences Working Group
(Second Draft – Sept 25, 2002)*

Proposed PME	Proposed Action/Measures	Requested By	Justification
Recreation Resources Management Plan (measures 1-8)	1. Continued operation and maintenance of park system, including improvements, replacement and renovation.	SSWG, IAC	To ensure continued availability of recreation sites. SCORP public surveys.
	2. Entiat, community waterfront master plan and implementation.	Entiat Focus Group	Community impacted when Project built. Involves Project lands.
	3. Entiat, continue as partner to complete the Entiatqua Outdoor Learning Center along the Entiat River.	USFS, Entiat Focus Group	Involves Project lands.
	4. Entiat, Columbia Breaks Fire Interpretive Center, potential partnership for completion of project.	Entiat Focus Group, CBFIC Foundation	Community impacted when Project built.
	5. Managed Access, low impact nature trails on WDFW-owned mitigation lands to provide opportunities for nature walks.	IAC	SCORP survey shows future trend that people want to interact with nature. State priorities as identified in SCORP.
	6. Community Recreation Fund	Chelan PUD	Recreation enhancements
	7. Trails that connect people within (or to) communities	IAC	SCORP survey shows statewide demand for safe places to walk and bike
	8. Monitoring and evaluation cycle and update studies.	IAC, BLM	So informed decisions can be made by advisory committee in future

Note: All proposals listed are conceptual. Proposal details and discussion will continue in the Social Sciences Working Group and Full Relicensing Team meetings. Final approval of a proposed measure involving Chelan PUD is ultimately at the discretion of the Chelan PUD Board of Commissioners.