

Rocky Reach Hydroelectric Project
Protection, Mitigation, Enhancement Measures
Recreation, Socioeconomics, Land Use, Aesthetics

*Proposal Development by Social Sciences Working Group
(Third Draft – Sept 26, 2002)*

Proposed PME	Proposed Action/Measures	Requested By	Justification
Recreation Resources Management Plan (measures 1-8)	1. Continued operation and maintenance of park system, including improvements, replacement and renovation.	Social Sciences Working Group, Washington State Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation	To ensure continued availability of recreation sites. SCORP public surveys.
	2. Entiat, community waterfront master plan and implementation.	Entiat Focus Group	Community impacted when Project built. Involves Project lands.
	3. Entiat, continue as partner to complete the Entiatqua Outdoor Learning Center along the Entiat River.	USFS, Entiat Focus Group	Involves Project lands.
	4. Entiat, Columbia Breaks Fire Interpretive Center, potential partnership for completion of project.	Entiat Focus Group, Columbia Breaks Fire Interpretive Center Foundation	Community impacted when Project built.
	5. Managed Access, low impact nature trails on WDFW-owned mitigation lands to provide opportunities for nature walks.	Washington State Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation	Statewide Comprehensive Outdoor Recreation Plan survey shows future trend that people want to interact with nature. State priorities as identified in SCORP.
	6. Community Recreation Fund	Chelan PUD	Recreation enhancements
	7. Trails that connect people within (or to) communities	Washington State Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation	SCORP survey shows statewide demand for safe places to walk and bike

	8. Monitoring and evaluation cycle and update studies.	Washington State Interagency Committee for Outdoor Recreation, Bureau of Land Management	So informed decisions can be made by advisory committee in future
--	--	--	---

Note: All proposals listed are conceptual. Proposal details and discussion will continue in the Social Sciences Working Group and Full Relicensing Team meetings. Final approval of a proposed measure involving Chelan PUD is ultimately at the discretion of the Chelan PUD Board of Commissioners.