Nov. 20, 2013

We are pleased to let you know that Chelan County PUD has completed the Land Management Program Plans for the Rocky Reach and Rock Island reservoirs. We greatly appreciated the public's input and comments over the past year as we put these documents together. You will see some significant improvements from the earlier versions.

The layout of the plan was improved to make the information more user-friendly. There also is a new checklist to simplify the steps for seeking a shoreline permit for a project

You can view the plans online at <http://www.chelanpud.org/10960.html>. Printed copies of the plans are available by contacting Kris Pomianek at (509) 661-4186.

Please join us at an open house from 4 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Dec. 3, in the Chelan PUD Auditorium in Wenatchee. We'll have printed copies of the plans for you, plus displays of the classification maps. PUD staff will be there to talk with you about your property and answer any questions you may have on how these plans may affect you.
