

Tuesday April 26th CCPUD crews installed the first piece of aerial equipment to support the new Itron 2-way advanced metering network. This equipment, with several hundred AMI meters, will be activated as part of our beta testing phase prior to installing equipment and AMI meters county wide starting later this fall.