Substation Siting Community Engagement Update

June 20th, 2016

Overview

- PUD-Community Team building in Chelan and Leavenworth
- Outreach Planning Standard was the guide
- Good process more work to do to successfully site the substations
- Two-way communication each better understands needs and concerns

Outreach Planning

- Principles:
  - Transparency and openness
  - Inclusiveness
  - Accessibility and consistency
  - Responsiveness
- Collaboration
  - Multi-way engagement
  - Joint learning, decision making and action
  - Alliances, multi-stakeholder initiatives
- Utilizing the process to find a win-win
- The best for the most for the longest period of time

The Process

PUD identifies the PUD performs Community Community group need for a new initial engineering formed – balanced engagement substation analysis process begins representation Define group Site selection Develop list of Evaluate and objectives and criteria possible areas narrow deliverables Consultant Check-in with the Transition from Contact property performs detailed community owners areas to sites analysis Check-in with the Present final recommendations

community

Deliverables

- Site selection criteria
  - 1. Statutory Requirements (non-negotiables)
  - 2. PUD Standards (non-standard outside scope)
  - 3. Site Variables (focus group's ability to impact)
  - 4. Design Variables (neighbors ability to impact)
- Evaluation matrix
- Maps
- Lands fact sheet
- Detailed cost analysis and renderings
- Approx. 3 proposed options to Commissioners

Status update

- Chelan community meeting May 24th
- Leavenworth community meeting June 28th
- Lands contacting all possible property owners in the "Top 3" areas
- Perform preliminary cost analysis
- Reapply site criteria
- Identify approximately 3 sites
- Check-in with the community
- Perform detailed cost analysis
- Present proposal to PUD Commission Q416
- We will fully document the process and conduct a "Lessons Learned" review

Questions?

